Obituary for Daniel Wheelock, kindly furnished for inclusion here by Jan Wheelock, Feb 1999.

From the 'Gauga Republican', 24 December 1879.

Daniel Wheelock who died on the 11th of December 1879 at Hambden, Geauga Co., Ohio, was born in Tyringham, Berkshire Co., Massachusetts October 29th, 1792. He was the son of Amariah Wheelock who was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. His mother's maiden name was Hannah Warren, who was a relative of General Warren of Revolutionary fame. One of the sisters of Mr. Wheelock was the mother of Judge Day, late of the Supreme Court of Ohio. Another sister, Clarissa Wheelock, married Capt. Anson Beman of Portage Co., Ohio. She died April 27, 1879 at the residence of her son, A. W. Beman, Esq., of Cleveland at the advanced age of 81 years. An extended notice of her life has heretofore been published in several of the leading papers of Northern Ohio.

At the age of 23, Mr. Wheelock came to Ohio, making the entire journey on foot and carrying on his back all of his worldly effects, the weight of which was about 60 pounds. After remaining her several years or until the year 1820, he returned home after his parents and the rest of his family, who did not, however, return with him, but followed soon after. On the way, at Avon, New York, his father died and was buried in that place.

The rest of the family, after the funeral, resumed their journey to the then far West. Daniel was the eldest son, and to him the grief-stricken widow and the balance of the family looked for advice and assistance. What a sad, sad journey that must have been and how few the men that under similar circumstances would not have given up in despair. But not so with Daniel Wheelock. With the same cool judgment and determination that ever marked his life, he permitted no discouragement to change his course from the path directed by his judgment. He arrived in Auburn, Geauga Co., Ohio and immediately located upon what is now known at the C.O. Dutton farm, the selection of which in that far-off time, in a dense, unbroken wilderness, is of itself a monument to his good judgment, as the place, for quality and location, has proved to be what he then foresaw, one of the best in Geauga Co. With his own hands he cleared off his farm and did much to improve it, and he assisted in raising a large portion of the buildings first erected in that township.

In 1822, he was married to Betsey Belcher, of Perry, Ohio, a lady of education and refinement, by whom he had three children, Hilan, Chauncey, and one that died in infancy. Hilan died several years ago. He was named after Hilan Canfield, Esq., formerly of Chardon, who was an early and intimate personal friend of Mr. Wheelock and that intimacy continued through life. After living in Auburn a few years, his wife died, leaving him alone with his two children and his aged mother. The loss of his wife was the great sorrow of his life and seemed in great measure to change the whole course of his life; but never in his darkest hours did he lose his character for honesty and truthfulness and sterling integrity. But in the grave of the wife of his youth he seemd to have buried his desire for wealth and worldly ambition. In a few years after her death, he married Lydia Hall of Auburn, with whom he lived until the time of his death. After his marriage to his second wife, he became the father of four children, H.A. Wheelock, Amherst J. Wheelock (who died in infancy), A.H. Wheelock, and Peda Wheelock, who died about three years ago.

In the fall of 1839, Mr. Wheelock moved to Chardon and located on the farm now owned by H.K. and T.C. Smith, where he remained until 1864 when he sold his farm and purchased the D.T. Bruce place on Water Street, now occupied by H.A. Wheelock and owned by him and his brother A.H. Wheelock. In 1872, he bought a small farm in Hambden and moved on to the same where he remained until he died.

Mr. Wheelock was a man of whom his casual acquaintances knew but little. He had the appearance to a stranger of being a cold, unfeeling man. His early and intimate acquaintances knew him better. They knew that no more kindly or generous heart ever beat in human breast than beat in the breast of Daniel Wheelock. His religion was to do by others as he would wish them to do by him. He was a man in whose mouth guile was never found. Honesty, truthfulness, and integrity were the character of his life. He despised pomp and show of every kind. He was a kind man, an affectionate father, and an obliging neighbor; a man who had read much and was well posted in the Old and New Testaments and in ancient and modern history. He will long be remembered and his memory cherished by the few that remain of his early associates. In the last conversation that the writer had with him, he said, 'I am not afraid to die. I never cheated nor wronged a person in my life, to my knowledge.' He has left his bereaved widow and fatherless children a far richer legacy than can be bought with gold and silver. He has left to them an example of honesty and integrity worthy of their emulation and a character above reproach. Let his virtues be emulated by all.

243. ALEXANDER⁶ WHEELOCK (Alexander⁵, Josiah⁴, Obadiah³, Benjamin², Ralph¹); bur. at Perry Cemetery, North Orange, MA;¹⁵ b. 2 Jan 1786;³¹ d. 5 Apr 1866 at age 80.¹⁵

Alexander's headstone reads: 'Alexander Wheelock, died Apr 5, 1866, age 79.' This doesn't compute with his birth date, 2 Jan 1786, given by 'Wheelock Genealogy', Carlyle Capron Wheelock and Winifred Gonseth, but the headstone is clear, and easy to read. The death date given by CCW and WTG (3 Apr 1867) was wrong, so the birth date is suspect.

Next to the headstone of Alexander and Lois is that of Levi A. Wheelock, died Nov 13, 1854, age 23. This is probably the son of Alexander and Lois.

Alexander's wife, Lois, died in Grand Rapids, MI, according to her headstone. Presumably, some members of this family moved there.

LOIS CHENEY. Lois' headstone in the North Orange Cemetery reads as follows.

'Lois C. wife of Alexander Wheelock, died at Grand Rapids, Michigan, Sep 9, 1876, age 81.'

She was buried at Perry Cemetery, North Orange, MA.¹⁵ She was born circa 1795.¹⁵ She died on 9 Sep 1876 at Grand Rapids, MI.¹⁵

Children of Alexander⁶ Wheelock and Lois Cheney were:

- i. SOPHIA P.⁷ WHEELOCK; bur. at Perry Cemetery, North Orange, MA.¹⁵
Sophia's headstone, next to that of her parents, reads as follows.

'Sophia P. daughter of Alexander and Lois Wheelock, died Sep 29, 1873, aged 22 years.'

The death date looks like 1813, but is probably 1843.

244. JOSIAH⁶ WHEELOCK (Alexander⁵, Josiah⁴, Obadiah³, Benjamin², Ralph¹); bur. at Perry Cemetery, North Orange, MA;¹⁵ b. 21 Jan 1796 at North Orange, MA;¹¹ d. 9 Jun 1835 at age 39.¹⁵

Children of Josiah⁶ Wheelock and Nancy Perry were as follows:

- i. CHARLES⁷ WHEELOCK; bur. at Perry Cemetery, North Orange, MA;¹⁵ b. Apr 1829;¹⁵ d. 18 Feb 1830.¹⁵
Charles' headstone, in the North Orange Cemetery, next to that of his parents, refers to him as 'son of Josiah and Nancy Wheelock ... aged 10 months and 7 days.'
- ii. LAURA ANN WHEELOCK; bur. at Perry Cemetery, North Orange, MA;¹⁵ b. Nov 1833;¹⁵ d. 10 Dec 1834 at age 1.¹⁵
Laura's headstone, next to that of her parents in the North Orange Cemetery, refers to her as 'daughter of Josiah and Nancy Wheelock ... aged 13 months.'

WHEELOCK, ELEAZAR LOUIS RIPLEY (1793-1847). Eleazar Louis Ripley Wheelock, soldier and surveyor, was born on March 31, 1793, in Hanover, New Hampshire, the son of Col. Eleazar Wheelock, Jr., a Revolutionary War veteran, and Thankful (Pennock) Wheelock. At the age of thirteen he moved with his family to Boat Run, Ohio. After the deaths of his parents he entered the United States army and served first in the Ohio Militia and later as an ensign in the New York Twenty-first Infantry Regiment, seeing active duty during the War of 1812. After the war he settled in Illinois, where he became a successful businessman and in 1818 married Mary Prickett. Their daughter and four sons were all born in Illinois, but as early as 1820 Wheelock began to invest in Texas real estate. In 1823 he made his first visit to Texas, where he spent a year surveying the town of Tampico. During a second visit in 1823 he met Sterling C. Robertson in San Felipe and returned home determined to settle his family in Robertson's Colony. In 1832 he answered the call of Governor Reynolds of Illinois for volunteers and served in the Black Hawk War. Throughout his adult life he was active as a militiaman in several states and had risen to the rank of colonel by 1833, when he brought his family to Texas and established the town of Wheelock in what is now Robertson County. There he served as a surveyor, land agent, lawyer, rancher, farmer, and soldier.

During the Texas Revolution he organized and captained a company of Texas Rangers. During the years of the Republic of Texas he served as a regional land commissioner. From 1836 through 1845 he was either advisor or leader on all expeditions that went out from Robertson and Milam counties against the Indians. During one of these raids his son in law was killed and he and his daughter taken prisoner, but like his friend Sam Houston, he was a defender of Indian rights. Toward the end of the Republic he served as Indian commissioner under President Anson Jones. In 1837 he organized the Texas University Company and gave land generously for its support. The coeducational institution died aborning due to Indian raids. In the spring of 1845 the Mercer Colony contracted with Wheelock as subagent to aid in surveying sixteen townships on the west side of the Trinity River. By September he had traveled nearly 1,700 miles within the grant and had been captured by Indians several times. He supported Robertson in his winning dispute with Stephen F. Austin over the control of Robertson's Colony. After statehood Wheelock expanded his business interests to include plans for silver and copper mining and traveled to Washington, D.C., to gather financing and support for this venture. In 1847 Sam Houston and the other members of the Texas delegation to Congress wrote to President James K. Polk on his behalf. On his way home Wheelock died unexpectedly in Edwardsville, Illinois, on May 14, 1847, at the home of his brother-in-law.

The Sturbridge Vital Records refer to him as 'Gershom Wheelock', omitting the middle name 'Blashfield'. The same VRs make note that Gershom and Chester were born too close together. One or both of their birth records must be in error. Carlyle Capron Wheelock obtained some of the information about this family from Avery G. Wheelock, 10 Sep 1912.

ELECTA JONES. Electa was the daughter of Samuel Jones, of Hebron, CT, and Tabatha Bishop of Bolton, CT. (Source: Connecticut Vital Records, Barbour Collection).

Henry J. Clarke in 'Captain Ralph Wheelock of Sturbridge, His Ancestors, and Some of His Descendants', 1903 reports that Calvin died in Hardwick, leaving behind two children 'now deceased', Albert and Martha. He mentions nothing of Henry E. Wheelock, who appears in the Southbridge Vital Records. The Connecticut marriage record of Calvin C. Wheelock and Eveline Trowbridge reports that Calvin was from Southbridge, MA.

MARY ADAMS ALLEN. Mary was from the town of Shrewsbury. 'The History of the Town of Shrewsbury', by Ward, indicates that Thomas Prentice Wheelock married Elizabeth Allen, but this was probably a mistake. The Grafton VRs indicate marriage intention between Mary A. Allen and Thomas P. Wheelock - not Elizabeth.

She was born on 13 Nov 1810.²⁶⁸ She died on 19 May 1892 at age 81.²⁶⁸

'New England Families, Genealogical and Memorial', by Cutter, Lewis Historical Publishing Company, 1914, Pg 127, has the following to say about Martin.

'Martin was a dealer in horses, and for a number of years resided at Gardner, Worcester County, MA, where he owned a small farm. In politics he was a Whig, and afterward a Republican.'

Cutter mentions a child, Samuel, son of Martin and Betsey, who resided in Springfield, MA, and worked for the Springfield Arms Company; but no Samuel is to be found in the Conway VRs. Cutter does not mention Charles, who does appear in the VRs, son of Martin and Mehitabel.

Also, Cutter indicates that Dexter was the son of Martin and his second wife, Betsey ____, but the Conway VRs disagree, showing that Dexter was the child of Martin and his first wife, Mehitabel. The Fitchburgh marriage record between Dexter and Olive refers to 'Dexter, s. Martin and Mehitabel.'

Finally, Cutter shows Willis as the son of Martin and his first wife, but the Conway VRs disagree.

Josephas also went by the name of Cephas.

There is a Conway marriage intention record between Joseph Wheelock and Abigail C. Beal, both of Conway, 10 Dec 1809.

Proof is lacking, but it is presumed the Conway Joseph is identical to the Josephas born in Heath, 3 Apr 1792.

The evidence is this.

- 1) The name and marriage date fit.
- 2) Children Dorothy and John match names of Joseph's presumed parents.

The following obituary kindly supplied by Roger F. Kelley, Dean Family Historian, Mar 2000.

OBITUARY.

Mary J. Wheelock was born in Rutland, Vermont, January 22, 1820. On October 16th 1843, she was married to Dr. Wm Franklin Dean and moved at once to the then far west. They stopped for a time at Milan, Ohio, then went to Michigan, but returned within a year and settled permanently in Milan. Here were born to them two sons and five daughters. Here, in the sad days of the civil war, were brought the remains of the beloved husband who had given his life for his country. Here, two daughters, Frances and Jeanie, found a resting place beside their father, and here, now, has been brought by the devoted children all that is mortal of their sainted mother.

During the last eighteen years of her life Mrs. Dean had been a great sufferer from rheumatism. Last October she went to Chicago to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Brown, for a change of climate and scene. She grew better for a time but afterwards her disease reached the vital organs and the family were summoned to say the sad farewell. At 11 o'clock on the evening of July 2d, 1891, here weary years of patient suffering at last were ended. It was a source of comfort that all her sons and daughters were around her bedside during the last hours.

The funeral party from Chicago arrived here Sunday, and the burial services were held at the home on the afternoon of Monday, July 6th, the Rev. C.S. Aves, of Norwalk, officiating and the sons acting as kpall-bearers.

There was a large gathering of sympathising friends, for the patient sufferer had endeared herself to the whole community. Those present from abroad were: Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Dean, of New York; Mrs. M.M. Moralee, of Hancock, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Wickes and son, and Mr. and Mrs. H.C. Brown and two children, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. J. Franklin Dean, of New York; Mr. Zenas King and Mrs. Dr. Osborn, of Cleveland; Mr. Ralph P. Smith, of Houston, Texas.

310. JOSEPH⁷ WHEELOCK (Joseph⁶, Benjamin⁵, Benjamin⁴, Benjamin³, Benjamin², Ralph¹); b. 1798;⁶⁰ d. 1879 at Leicester, NY.³⁰⁵

Josephs obituary, published in the Leicester local newspaper, reads as follows.

Joseph Wheelock, one of the oldest citizens of Leicester died on Saturday last, aged 81 years. He came into this section as a pioneer, settled for two years in Perry and then came to the town of Leicester where he resided until his death. He was an energetic man in business and was widely known and respected.

From a book entitled 'Biographical Review, Biographical Sketches of Leading Citizens of Livingston and Wyoming Counties, New York', Boston, Biographical Publishing Company, 1895, we find.

Joseph left Shaftsbury, Vt. for New York in 1828, travelling by means of wagons to Troy, and then by canal to Rochester. The household goods were taken on a flatboat on Genesee River directly to Leicester, while the family took the stage to Geneseo, and then hired a team to complete the journey to the town of Perry, Wyoming County, New York. Here he bought land, and resided until 1831, when he sold out and purchased a farm adjoining the Pine Tavern estate at the west part of the town of Leicester. This farm was a forlorn-looking place, with only log buildings, but in a few years many improvements were made, and frame buildings were erected. At the end of two years Mr. Wheelock rented the Pine Tavern, the property of Captain Horatio Jones, including a large tract of land, where, in connection with tavern-keeping, he engaged extensively in farming. In 1839 he sold out his interests and went to Mount Morris, where he leased the American House, which he carried on for two years. He then came to Cuylerville, bought property, and engaged in the mercantile business. In 1855 he went to California, joining two of his sons who had previously gone there. Returning to Cuylerville the following year, he here led a retired life, and died when eighty one years of age.

313. REBECCA⁷ WHEELOCK (Lyman⁶, Jonathan⁵, Benjamin⁴, Benjamin³, Benjamin², Ralph¹); b. 21 Jul 1786;¹⁹⁹ m. Seth Pratt 7 Apr 1807 at Easton, Bristol, MA;³⁰⁹ d. 13 Oct 1871 at age 85.³⁰⁹

The children of Rebecca and Seth are taken from 'History of the Town of Easton, MA', by W. L. Chaffin, 1886.

Lyman Wheelock.

A parting gift from his.

Sister Rebecca Pratt.

Sep 13th 1848.

This book was no doubt given to Lyman by his sister, perhaps as a parting gift after she visited him in Ohio.

(Source: Robert Wheelock, a descendant of Lyman Wheelock and Mercy Williams, through their son Lyman, Jr., and his son John Wheelock, Aug 2000.).

SETH PRATT.

Seth Pratt was a Doctor. (Source: 'History of Easton', W. L. Chaffin, 1886).

Seth Pratt, M.D., was the son of Lietenant Seth Pratt and Mindwell Stone. He studied medicine with Dr. Issachar Snell, of North Bridgewater, and was a practising physician in Easton, MA, until his death.

He was born on 8 Mar 1780 at Easton, Bristol, MA.³⁰⁹ He died on 12 Aug 1816 at Easton, Bristol, MA, at age 36.³⁰⁹

Children of Rebecca⁷ Wheelock and Seth Pratt were as follows:

- i. SETH⁶ PRATT.
- ii. ERASMUS D. PRATT.
- iii. SARAH M. PRATT.

314. LYMAN⁷ WHELOCK (Lyman⁶, Jonathan⁵, Benjamin⁴, Benjamin³, Benjamin², Ralph¹); bur. at Wheelock Cemetery, West Milton, OH;³¹⁰ b. 10 Nov 1788 at Easton, Bristol Co, MA;¹⁹⁹ m. Mary Fouts 10 Apr 1820 at Miami, OH;³¹¹ d. 21 Nov 1850 at Union Township, Miami Co, OH, at age 62.¹⁹⁹

Lyman Wheelock, of Miami County, Ohio, was was born in Massachusetts (according to 'History of Miami Co, OH', by Beers, 1880). Lyman appears in the 1850 Census for Miami Co, OH as follows (all children born in Ohio).

Lyman, age 59, male.

Mary, age 46, female.

Henry, age 24, male.

Rebecca, age 22, male.

Lyman, age 18, male.

Harriet, age 16, female.

David, age 13, male.

John, age 10, male.

Daniel, age 7, male.

This is the only Wheelock family on record in the Miami County 1850 Census.

Susan Wheelock, the oldest child in this family, married John Teague in 1846, and therefore does not appear in the 1850 Census.

There are records of land transactions involving Henry Wheelock and John Teague.

Probate Case #1932, Miami County, Ohio, shows that Lyman Wheelock distributed $972 of his estate to Lyman Wheelock, Henry Wheelock, Harriet Wheelock, Rebecca and Benjamin N. Langston [who recorded the vital records of this family in 1881 on Miami County Infirmary Stationery], John and Susan Teague, and Mary Wheelock. It also shows a schedule of property left to support his widow, Mary, and minor children Lyman Wheelock, Harriet Wheelock, Davis Wheelock, John Wheelock, and Daniel Wheelock. The probate records also show a bill of property sold by administrators of Lyman's estate (Henry Wheelock and Henry Fouts), dated 12 Dec 1850.

Many of the descendants of Lyman Wheelock and Mary Fouts are buried in the Wheelock Cemetery in West Milton, Ohio. Lyman's headstone, to be found in the aforesaid cemetery, reads as follows: 'Our Father, Lyman Wheelock, and Native of Bristol Co, Mass, died Nov 21, 1850, aged 62 y's. 11D.'

MARY FOUTS. There is some ambiguity about the day of Mary's birth - the handwritten note by Benjamin N. Langston is difficult to read - but the month and year are certain.

Mary was the daughter of Henry Fouts and Susanna Mast.

She was born on 2 Sep 1802 at Uwharrie Waters, Rowan Co, NC.¹⁹⁹ She died on 7 May 1884 at Union Township, Miami Co, OH, at age 81.³¹¹

Robert Wheelock, who supplied the note written in 1881 by Benjamin Langston containing vital dates for the family of Lyman Wheelock and Mary Fouts, descends from John Wheelock as follows.

Robert Lewis Wheelock/John Clyde Wheelock/Richard Wheelock/John Wheelock.

The marriage between Daniel and Phebe is inferred by the Rhode Island Vital Records, which lists the deaths of several children of Daniel and Phebe, referring to her as Phebe C. Wheelock. Langdon Cheever Wheelock was a Attorney. Mormon Archives, submitted by Theresa S. Hill: Waite, Wheelock Family of Calais, Vermont, p. 94-5.

The papers belonging to Langdon C. Wheelock and his family can be found in the Aldrich Public Library, Barre, Vt. These papers include L. C. Wheelock's business records, personal letters, and biographical sketches. They also include the scrapbooks and picture books of his daughter Carrie. The biographical sketches written for Langdon, his wife, and his children were adapted from those papers.

Langdon and his family resided at 145 North Main Street, in Barre, Vermont.

Two copies of a handwritten biographical sketch of Langdon C. Wheelock can be found in these archives. The author was not identified, but the sketches were written after his death, and may have been meant for publication in a local Barre newspaper.

Some excerpts from this sketch are presented here.

The subject of this sketch, Langdon C. Wheelock, true to his ancestry, early showed his aptitude and desire for study. The primitive conditions of the schools during that period made an attempt towards scholarship difficult, and limited means made the aquirement of necessary books almost impossible; but persistence, industry, and a natural gift for siezing any opportunity overcame each difficulty; and at an early age he taught each winter the 'upper-room' in the Barre Village School. And in summer continued his studies while assisting on his father's farm. In 1848 he began the study of the law, and in 1850 was admitting into practice before the Washington County Bar, forming a partnership with Newell Kinsmen, Esq., at that time one of Barre's most prosperous lawyers. Two years later Mr. Kinsmen went west to join his sons, and Mr. Wheelock continued the business alone.

The conditions surrounding the practice of law at that time made it impossible for an attorney to specialize as is done today. But then each must be well versed in all branches of his profession. This too, one of Mr. Wheelocks studious habits was a most acceptable task. From various newspaper articles printed in the state at the time of his death, it would seem that his success at the bar was most generally attributed to his careful preparations of the case. An editorial in Montpelier Journal speaks of him thus 'perhaps no attorney at the bar of Washinton County has been better known than L. C. Wheelock. During the past fifteen or twenty years he has had much to do of the legal affairs throughout that county, and in many portions of Orange County and has always been famous as a keen, well read, sharp sighted lawyer, noted for his careful working of the case.'

Mr. Wheelocks marriage to Annette Goldsbury of Barre occurred 4 May 1857. They had two children, a son Charles S., and a daughter, Carrie M. In a sketch written by Mr. Boyce (Boyer?) Esq. and read before the Washington County Bar Association, he says 'Mr. Wheelock was an exemplary family man. Tenderness and thoughtfulness toward wife and children were his to a marked degree. No matter how harrassing the course of his day may have been, once he had crossed the threshold of his home, every cloud vanished, and nothing was allowed to mar the happiness domestic life.'

His Puritan ancestry showed itself in his lifelong fight for temperance. Once convinced of the moral right in this great question, nothing could change his stand upon him, although it cost him some valued friendships and exposed him to much abuse.

Devoted to his Church, Universalist, he served in many capacities. As a young man he was leader of the choir, for many years was the superintendant of the Sunday, and often in the absence of a clergyman would occupy the pulpit, and at all times was ready to give both time and of his means to further the interest of the church and it's[...illegible...].

As an educator his opinion was often sought in school matters and his councils were, even by his opponents, often afterwards acknowledged to be wise.

In the fall of 1873, Mr. Wheelock was stricken by diptheria, and his death occurred 4 days later, 19 Oct 1873.

Temperate, industrious, frugal, a loving husband and father, and a brave champion for the right as he saw it, no more can be said in the honor of any man.

M. ANNETTE GOLDSBURY. Mrs. Annette Wheelock, great grand-daughter of city's first settler, was in 97th year, 70th in same house. She was keenly interested in affairs of her day, up to her death.

Mrs Annette Goldsbury Wheelock, Barre's oldest native resident, oldest resident as well, direct descendent of Barre's first settler in 1788, who was John Goldsbury, passed away just as the new day was dawning this morning at the Wheelock family residence at 145 North Main St., being in her 97th year.

The following obituary was found in the scrapbook of Carrie Wheelock (daughter of Annette Goldsbury Wheelock).

July 28, 1927 - Barre's Oldest Resident Dead.

She was born circa 1830 at Barre, VT. She died on 28 Jul 1927 at Barre, VT.

Children of Langdon Cheever⁷ Wheelock and M. Annette Goldsbury were as follows:

- i. CHARLES SUMNER⁸ WHEELOCK; d. 14 Aug 1906 at Barre, VT.³²⁹

Charles Sumner Wheelock was a Banker. The following obituary was found in the scrapbook of Carrie Wheelock. It is presented verbatim below.

15 Aug 1906.

Charles Sumner Wheelock whose death yesterday afternoon was briefly chronicled in yesterday's paper was the son of the late Langdon C. Wheelock, Esq. He was graduated at Goddard Seminary, and entered Tufts College.

After two years in the later institution, ill health compelled him to go further from the coast. He then took a course and graduated at the Eastman (??) Business College in Poughkipsie, N.Y.

For three years he was at the Chase Manhattan Bank in New York City, when ill health again compelled him to give up [..illegible...] purpose. The directors of the bank with great kindness gave him a years leave of absence during which time he hoped to regain his strength. For three years he was travelling, trying to find some place which would restore him to health, but his search, proving fruitless, he returned to his home of Barre where he had remained, except for brief intervals away, ever since, during which time he was a constant sufferer from asthma. The disease produced a weakened heart and resulted in heart failure.

Those who knew him well had many pleasant memories of his sparkling wit and his keen appreciation of things. It was this rare gift which kept him cheerful under most trying conditions and enabled him to find joy in life although forced by his illness to spend much of his time in his room. He was an ardent lover of outdoor sports, although denied large participation in them, an enthusiastic admirer of nature, and something of a naturalist in an unscientific way. He was a loyal citizen anxious for the best interests of his native city, and believing thoroughly in her bright future, he was a consistent temperance man and a staunch Universalist.

With him has died the last male in his line of the Wheelock family. He leaves his mother and one sister.

The funeral will be held at his late home, 145 North Main St, Barre, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The friends are kindly requested not to send flowers.

ii. CARRIE WHELOCK;

Carrie Wheelock was a Teacher. Carrie Wheelock was born and lived most of her days in Barre, Vermont. She took up the profession of teaching kindergarten, which she apparently pursued most of her adult life.

The papers of the Langdon C. Wheelock family, archived in the Aldrich Public Library in Barre, Vt. contain a 'Composition Book' maintained by Carrie. Inside this book is a business card which reads: 'The Kindergarten will open in Mrs. Wheelocks Main St. home, Monday, Aug 30, 1886, terms $4/month, hours 9 to 12 AM.'

The composition book has several hundred entries, one for each of her kindergarten students. Each entry indicates date of birth, date of entry into the kindergarten, and newspaper clippings indicating important events in the life of that person, including in some cases, the obituary.

Carrie obviously maintained this album over many years of her life, and took great pride in the accomplishments of her students.

There is no indication that she ever married.

Since her scrapbooks contains the obituary of her mother (who was the last in her family to die), she must have died after 1927.

Carlyle Wheelock and Winifred Gonseth reports two children for Estes and Mary Dowley: Albert T. and Albert A. (Source: 'Wheelock Genealogy', by Carlyle Wheelock and Winifred Gonseth, 1955).

MARY CORNELIA DOWLEY. The Charlton Vital Records record the marriage of Estes to Mrs. Mary Cornelia Dowley of Worcester, MA. It is possible that Mary's maiden name is Cornelia, and that Dowley is the name of her previous husband.

She was buried at Northside Cemetery, Charlton, MA.¹⁵ She was born in Nov 1812.¹⁵ She died on 9 Jan 1892 at age 79.¹⁵

Children of Estes⁷ Wheelock and Mary Cornelia Dowley were:

- i. ALBERT T.⁸ WHELOCK; bur. at Northside Cemetery, Charlton, MA;¹⁵ b. 23 May 1844 at Worcester, Worcester, MA;¹⁹⁴ d. 24 Nov 1848 at Worcester, Worcester, MA, at age 4.¹⁹⁴

The Worcester Vital Records show the birth name as Albert T. Wheelock, but the death record shows Albert A. Wheelock, age 4. It is presumed the two are the same person.

328. GEORGE EDWARD⁷ WHELOCK (Wate⁶, Seth⁵, Paul⁴, Benjamin³, Benjamin², Ralph¹); bur. at Northside Cemetery, Charlton, MA;¹⁵ b. 12 Jul 1830 at Charlton, Worcester, MA;⁵² d. 6 Feb 1914 at age 83.¹⁵

MARY _____ was buried at Northside Cemetery, Charlton, MA.¹⁵ She was born in Nov 1841.¹⁵ She died on 15 Feb 1896 at age 54.¹⁵

Children of George Edward⁷ Wheelock and Mary _____ were:

- i. ELLEN D.⁸ WHELOCK; bur. at Northside Cemetery, Charlton, MA;¹⁵ b. 1882;¹⁵ d. 1971.¹⁵

The information that Ellen was the daughter of George came from Harlan Wheelock Stockman Jr., Ellen's grandson.

329. ALBERT HENRY⁷ WHELOCK (Silas⁶, Edward⁵, Paul⁴, Benjamin³, Benjamin², Ralph¹); b. 3 Jan 1805 at NY;²⁰⁶ d. 8 Jun 1875 at Hamburg, Erie, NY, at age 70.³³⁰

Albert Henry Wheelock was a Farmer. A deed for land in East Hamburg, Township 9, Range 7, Lot 34, Subdivision G was issued to Albert Wheelock on 21 Oct 1830. The size of the lot was 30 acres.[Source: 'Historical Briefs, Hamburg and Vicinity, Lancaster and Vicinity', Lyman Morris Smith, Author and Publisher, no date given.].

On 15 Dec 1832, Elijah Colvin sold lot 36, Township 9, Range 7, to Albert Wheelock. On 17 June 1863, Albert sold this parcel to Maryette and Amos Colvin. On 1 May 1866 he sold lot 35 to Maryette and Amos. (Source: Erie County Deeds, by way of Theresa Ann Crowell Bickhart, Mar 2000).

The 1850 New York Census indicates that Albert's real estate holdings were valued at $3000 (typical for a farmer in Hamburg, NY). The children, shown here, are those listed in this census. These children (and only these) are also listed on the administration of Albert's estate, in 1875 (Erie County Surrogate Court File # 24264).

The first name of Albert's wife (Lucina) is recorded in the 1850 New York Census. The last name, Clark, is not; it is taken from the records of Larry Danker.

Larry also records a son Henry (which is not in the 1850 census, but may be in later census records). The 1860 Census records a Harrison Wheelock, living in East Hamburg. This may be another son of, or may be a misspelling of Harmon Wheelock, who lived in the same town, but is not listed in the census.

According to the private records of Persis (Park) Ivett, Albert lived one winter with his brother Homer, in Fredonia, to go to school.

The administration of his estate (Erie County Surrogate Court File # 24264) refers to children Laura Smith of Hamburg, Maryette Colvin of East Hamburg, William H. Wheelock of Hamburg, and Oscar Wheelock of East Hamburg. The document is signed by his wife, Sena, and indicates 'that he left no will, so far as your petitioner has heard or been able to discover.'

LUCINA CLARK. Lucina went by the name of Sena.

She was born in 1816 at NY.³³¹ She died on 25 Jan 1894 at East Hamburg, Erie, NY.³³²

Children of Albert Henry⁷ Wheelock and Lucina Clark were as follows:

- i. LAURA⁸ WHEELOCK; b. 1831 at NY;³³¹ m. George A. Schmitt 26 Nov 1868.³³³
448. ii. MARIETTE WHEELOCK, b. 4 Nov 1834; m. Amos Colvin.
449. iii. WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON WHEELOCK, b. 9 Jul 1837 at East Hamburg, Erie County, NY; m. Caroline Juliana Dorst; m. Lida Coen.
450. iv. OSCAR WHEELOCK, b. 1841 at NY.

330. LEWIS⁷ WHEELOCK (Silas⁶, Edward⁵, Paul⁴, Benjamin³, Benjamin², Ralph¹); b. 5 Dec 1807 at Batavia, Genesee Co, NY;³³⁴ m. Eliza Palmer circa 1834; d. 24 Dec 1881 at Colden, Erie Co, NY, at age 74.³³⁵

Lewis Wheelock was a Farmer, Miller. Persis (Park) Ivett lists the following children for Lewis: Orlando, Mary Ann, Albert, Clarinda, Lewis, Rena, Nina, Cyrus, and Phoebe.

The administration of Lewis' estate (Erie County Surrogate Court file # 24272) lists the following children: Orlando, Albert, Lewis, Irena, Almira, Cyrus, and Phoebe. It lists the following grandchildren: Edward E. Hedges(?), Mary Hedges, both of Colden, NY, Lewis Hedges, Esther(?) Alger(?), of Boston, Elmer Chase and ??? Chase of Boston, Erie Co, NY.

The 1860 Erie County Census shows Lewis living in Concord, NY, with 4 male children, and 4 female children. The Census taker had sloppy handwriting, but the following names can be clearly discerned.

Orlando (age 25), Albert (age 21), Clarinda (age 19), Lewis (age 16), and Phoebe (age 9).

On 8 Feb 1833, Silas Wheelock, Lewis' father, bought 'lot 38, in township 7, range 6', 100 acres of land in what is now Concord, N.Y. (or thereabouts), for $465 [1]. Shortly thereafter, in the same year, 1833, Lewis moved onto this lot [2]. He built a mill (on Buffalo Creek, Waterville), and set up farming operations [3]. Twelve years later, in 1845, Lewis was still living on the farm[4].

The following is a testimonial by Calvin Killom, a neighbor of Lewis.

'We moved over to Waterville about 1822 and located on lot thirty-eight, township seven, range six, on what has since been known as the Wheelock place. Our house was on a small flat on the north part of the farm. There were no settlers in the northeast part of town when we came; there was no road along the creek nor in any direction. Isaac Beaver came two years after and located on Ransford Foot's flats. Robert Flint came in 1826 and settled on the Treat Place. Homer Barnes and his father came about 1830 and built a sawmill. Abner Wilson came, and he and Barnes built a grist mill. Hezekiah Griffith came about 1832, John Griffith and Lewis Wheelock about '33...' [5].

Lewis' obituary appears in the Buffalo Daily Courier Newspaper, 1 Dec 1881, and reads as follows.

'The death of Lewis Wheelock, one of the oldest residents of Erie County, occurred at Concord on the 24th, The deceased was born in Batavia, Genesee County, Dec, 5, 1807 but shortly afterwards removed to Erie county, where he resided for 70 years, 48 of which had been passed on his farm in Concord, Mr. Wheelock leaves a family of 8 children, 2 of whom reside in this city.'

The administration of his estate (Erie County Surrogate Court File # 24272) indicates 'that he left no will, so far as your petitioner, after diligen enquiry, has heard, or been able to discover.'

Records on file at the Erie County Probate Office report that Lewis was buried in Sardinia, NY.

The size of the lot was 120 acres.[Source: 'Historical Briefs, Hamburg and Vicinity, Lancaster and Vicinity', Lyman Morris Smith, Author and Publisher, no date given.].

The 1850 NY Census shows that Silas was housing his father (Silas) and his father's second wife (Sarah), in addition to his own children and wife. They were living in Hamburg, NY, at the time. The 1850 Census records Silas' age as 37, in disagreement with the 6 June 1811 birth date shown. (Of course, the 7 might have been a 9.).

Silas died of pneumonia. (Source: Evelyn Wheelock, descendent of Silas, Jr.).

John Henry [1] was an elder in the Presbyterian Church of Hamburg. In the 1860 Census, John Homer's family was living in Dayton, NY, but in 1870, the family was in Fredonia, NY.'

John Homer Wheelock appears to have gone by the name Homer, instead of John. His death notice in the Fredonia paper refers to him as Homer Wheelock. The notice reads as follows.

'Wheelock, Homer, died 28 Mar 1887. In Dunkirk, in 74th year..funeral at house; buried Forest Hill Cemetery. Resident of Pomfret some 20 yrs. Leaves wife and 7 children, 3 son, 4 daughters, all grown to maturity. Z. E. Wheelock, superintendant of street railway is one of the sons.'

In the 'History of the City of Buffalo and Erie County, 1884' [2] we find that Homer was elected an elder of the First Presbyterian Church of Orchard Park in 1838, along with Richard Smith and David C. Hough. Homer's parents, Silas and Rena, were both founding members of this church when it was first organized in 1817.

The following is excerpted from 'Biographical Review, Biographical Sketches of Leading Citizens of Livingston and Wyoming Counties, New York', Boston, Biographical Review Publishing Company, 1895.

Harry served in the War of 1812, but afterward worked on a homestead till 1819, when he was twenty seven years old. He then came to Livingston County, and purchased a tract of land in Leicester, whereon a log house was the only improvement. After this purchase he returned to Ontario County, and married Judith Gillett. The young couple commenced life in the log cabin; and within its lowly walls was born Austin Wheelock, the special subject of this sketch. In due time a frame house took the place of the more primitive residence; and here Mr. Harry Wheelock remained until his death, which occurred on June 13, 1873, when he had passed from his fourscore years, and had seen the county develop from wilderness to wealth.

Silas M. Wheelock began work at the age of 9, earning 14 cents daily. From that age until his retirement sixty years later, he was almost constantly engaged in some form of work connected with the manufacture of woollens. When his father retired in 1846, he formed the firm C.A. & S.M. Wheelock, with his brother Charles, and his father. The firm manufactured satinets, plaid linseys, and tweeds. The business prospered. In 1870, Silas M. Wheelock bought the plant of the Harris Woolen Company at Putnam, CT, of which he became treasurer and manager. In 1883 he bought the Central Mill in Uxbridge, MA, and formed the Calumet Woolen Company to operate that extensive plant. In 1886 that company bought the Uxbridge Woolen factory (later called the Hecla Mill), which was operated in connection with the Calumet Mill until 1905. From 1846 until 1891, Mr. Wheelock was owner of Waucantuck Mills, as the plant of the C.A. & S.M. Wheelock Company was called. For forty three years (1858-1901) he was a director of the Blackstone National Bank. He represented the Second Worcester Senatorial District in the Massachusetts Legislature, 1888 and 1889. He was a delegate to the 1900 Republican National Convention, nominating William McKinley for the Presidency; and served Uxbridge as a selectman for three years.

Alfred left Vermont in 1849, crossed the Isthmus of Panama, and arrived in San Francisco in July, on board the Capital. He had a mining claim in Placerville in partnership with Alfred Randolph.

Alfred Randolph's sister, Matilda Randolph, moved from the midwest to California in 1864, having been recently widowed. She married Alfred Wheelock on June 19, 1867. They had two children, Carrie Belle, born March 1, 1869, and Samuel Alfred, born October 4, 1871. Sam married Phoebe Reynolds on 1901. They have no children. Carrie married Martin Luther Shellenbarger on Jan 14, 1906. Their son, John Alfred, was born on Jan 10, 1907. Alfred Wheelock died August 29, 1876 of 'inflammation of the bowel.'

It has been incorrectly reported in various places that Alfred was 'murdered' or 'killed by Indians'. He left his home in Vermont in anger, and for many years withheld communications with his father, who though he was dead. Finally, his wife to be, Mathilda (Randolph) Baldwin secretly wrote to Alfred's father, telling of his whereabouts and safety. His father, Jonathan, was overjoyed at the news, and wrote a warm letter back to Mathilda, who then showed it to Alfred.

MATILDA RANDOLPH. The following spring, in 1864, the loss of the war by then apparent, her father decided to join the family members already living in California. As a widow with three small children, the youngest of whom learned to walk on the trek across, Matilda traversed the Oregon-California Trail in a covered wagon, arriving in Hicksville, near Sacramento, in September of 1864.

Matilda was born in 1836 in a log cabin in Illinois, where her parents were the first white settlers. In 1854, when Matilda was 18, her father took the family and migrated to Kansas where they were again the first white family into the area. Gardner Randolph hoped to get Kansas admitted to the Union as a slave state.

She spent ten years in Kansas, enduring not only the vagaries of Kansas weather, but the conflict raging about her in the days leading up to and including the Civil War. These conflicts included land disputes as abolitionists tried to drive her father out. There she married and bore four children, battling floods, prairie fires and drought before her husband was killed.

(Source: Jacquelyn Hanson, a descendant of Matilda Randolph and Alfred Wheelock.).

There she met Alfred Wheelock, a young Argonaut, and found happiness again in a new love and new life. Throughout the story shines the courage of a woman who would not allow the world to defeat her.

Matilda's great-granddaughter, Jacquelyn Hanson, wrote a book about the life of this pioneer. The book is entitled 'Matilda's Story: A Biographical Novel', by Jacquelyn Hanson, published by Glenhaven Press, 1997, ISBN: 0963726536.

Daniel Wheelock was among the earliest New Yorkers to follow James Strang and his Mormon group to Beaver Island, Michigan. The sect was known as the 'Strangites', an active political and religious group. James Strang, the leader, was coronated 'king' in 1850. Daniel later left the group after testifying against Strang in a federal deposition regarding counterfeiting. He returned to New York, where he married Jane Fikes, then returned to Michigan to live near his brother Benjamin, in Allegan County. He then went back to NY for 'civil war defense', and returned finally to Cheboygan County, Michigan, his final resting place.

The Story of Daniel S. Wheelock and the Strangites, by Jan Wheelock, 1998.

'In 1848, two Mormon families named Chessman and Wheelock located in Cheboygan. The former had five wives, while the latter was too poor to keep but one...Wheelock located and improved a farm in Cheboygan County and is now a well-to-do farmer.' (1873)[1].

The first Wheelocks of this line in northern Michigan were brothers, Lorenzo Don and Daniel S., sons of Artemas of New York. Lorenzo was the older brother, a married man, probably enticed to the Beaver Island Mormon settlement by the promise of land. Each adult Mormon male was granted a parcel of land in the early development of the Mormon congregation under the leadership of James Strang. Whether Lorenzo heard the 'word' in New York, the place of his birth, or in Ohio where he may have married, is not clear. But it is clear that he resided among the early Mormons on Beaver Island, about 1848. ref.[2].

Daniel S. Wheelock accompanied his brother, and was listed as one of the Mormons on the island at the time of the 'coronation' of King James Strang. However, Daniel was employed by a non-Mormon, Mr. Peter McKinley, and it appears that Daniel's loyalty was pulled between his employer and the church. Much friction existed between the Mormons and the Gentiles, with thievery, assault, defamation and conspiracy on both sides. Daniel was not very old, only 17 in 1850, and it must have been very difficult for him to be in the middle of the two sides. One tale recalled by a woman who had been a child on Beaver Island at the time, tells of Daniel receiving a severe whipping, a probable result of that conflict (if the story is true--some historians doubt its accuracy).

'Mr. Peter McKinley at the point was now suffering considerable losses by the Mormons taking his cattle and butchering them, also other goods which they were taking. A young man, or boy, Wheelock by name, told or gave information about the butchering of the cattle. He being a Mormon boy employed by Mr. McKinley, had to suffer the penalty by receiving fifty stripes with the 'blue beaches,' that being one kind of their punishments. We had never heard before of the Mormons doing anything of this kind to their people. The boy had told the truth and had to suffer the cruel whipping.'[3].

On April 30, 1851, President Millard Fillmore authorized legal action against the Mormons of Beaver Island. The U.S. steamer ship Michigan was sent to Beaver Island about May 23 to arrest James Strang on charges of thievery, trespassing, mail obstruction and counterfeiting. Depositions were taken for two days, and Daniel was one of those witnesses making a deposition on June 18, 1851.

'Only one person gave testimony to support the allegation that Strang and two other Mormons had counterfeited coin of the United States. The man, a former Mormon named Daniel S. Wheelock, said Strang asked him to pass counterfeit money of October 9, 1850, the morning after a George Adams theatrical production, Pizarro, in the tabernacle. Strang's wife, Mary, who suddenly had been taken ill, had remained there overnight, and the next morning, Wheelock returned to the tabernacle to get an umbrella and saw Strang there. 'He wanted men to go off on a consecrating expedition and a-passing counterfeit money,' Wheelock said in his deposition. 'Showed me three half dollars, and said he would make more as soon as he could get materials. They were American half dollars. Only had one in my hand. He told me they were bad.' Wheelock said Strang never said anything in his presence about counterfeiting at any other time, and he said that he had never seen tools for manufacturing counterfeit coins in Strang's possession. Several Mormons testified that they had been at the tabernacle that morning but had heard no conversation between Wheelock and Strang. They said Strang was busy attending to his wife and that everyone was told to be silent.^[4]

It is no surprise that the Mormons declared Daniel an apostate (September 16, 1851) and he left Beaver Island to return home to Philadelphia, Jefferson Co, New York. [5] Mr. McKinley left too, moving to Cheboygan in October 1851. Lorenzo Wheelock followed, settling a farm in Cheboygan County. James Strang was not convicted of any wrong-doing in the federal trial, but was assassinated in 1856, after which the Strangite Mormon sect was pretty much dissolved. Daniel returned to Michigan and was in Allegan County for some time before the Civil War, then enrolled in the 10th New York Heavy Artillery in New York on August 4, 1862. After the war, Daniel returned to the Cheboygan County area to farm and raise his family. Many Wheelock descendants remain in the area.
